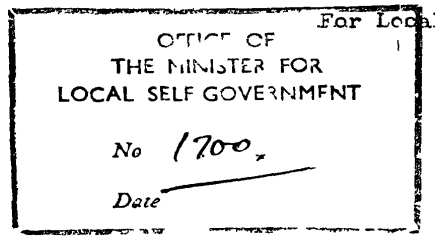
Encl 1



Sir,

Subject

I have the honour to state that an extent of 44 acres of land belonging to Nirkodu village adjoining Sagar Town has been recently taken possession of from the Revenue Department to the municipality, for formation of an extension and for providing places to the following -

i a High School, Building and Play-ground ii Construction of Sweepers' colony iii Construction of a Church and for other alike public purposes

The entire land is covered with thick growth of jungle The entire area has to be cleared of this jungle Roads and conservancies have to be formed Lighting and water facilities have also to be provided in addition to the drainage scheme

A sum of at least Rs 15,000/- is required for clearing the area from jungle trees and forming roads etc , ~~amenities~~

The municipality is not in a position to expend any amount for this purpose in view of the very bad financial condition of the municipality

The municipal Council which met at a Special meeting on 14th April 1948 has praved the benign Government thr u h a resolution for grant of Rs 15,000/- for this purpose

It will not be out of place to submit that this town has not so far received
